CUTTING THE HAIR.—There is a common but false notion that frequent cutting the hair is favorable to its health and growth. Mothers thus often deplete their infants of their silken locks, with the idea that the hair will be much more rich and abundant. This is an error. "The most beautiful and abundant heads of hair I ever saw," says Dr. Casenave, "were those which the scissors had never touched." Mothers, not satisfied with trimming the hair of their children, often have it shaved or cut close to the scalp, when they find it losing some of its brilliancy or falling out. Except in certain rare cases of disease, the total sacrifice of the hair is unnecessary, and the second growth is never equal to the first. Getting the hair trimmed from time to time may be allowed as a matter of convenience, but it does not produce the benefit generally attributed to it.—Harper's Magazine.

RECIPE FOR DIARRHOEA.—A friend has handed to us for publication the following receipt, which he feels confident, (after a use of twenty years,) will cure the worst case of diarrhea:
Tincture Capsicum, one-half ounce.
Tincture Ginger, one ounce.
Tincture Opium one-half ounce.
To be well mixed. Dose for an adult—half a teaspoonful in a wineglass of water, and repeat in fifteen minutes if necessary. For children—from five to twenty drops, according to age.—Ec.

DON'T WRITE THERE.—"Don't write there," said one to a lad who was writing with a diamond pin on a pane of glass in the window of a hotel. "Why?" said he. "Because you can't rub it out." There are other things which men should not do, because they cannot rub them out. A heart is aching for sympathy, and a cold, perhaps a heartless word is spoken. The impression may be more durable than that of a diamond upon the glass. The inscription on the heart may last forever. On many a mind and many a heart, sad inscriptions are deeply engraved, which no effort can erase. We should be careful what we write on the minds of others.—Merry's Museum.

John C. Breckinridge is living very quietly at Niagara, a little town about twenty miles from the Falls. He was at the Clifton a short time since, with General Early, as the guest of Mr. Chabourne of St. Louis.

Put two persons in the same bedroom one of whom has the toothache and the other is in love, and it will be found that the person having the toothache will go to sleep first.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN DENTISTRY.

The attention of the public is called to a great discovery in Dentistry. THE GREATEST ADVANCE STEP EVER MADE IN THE ART.

The main difficulty in wearing artificial teeth is, they do not hold in their place firmly enough, and add to this the annoyance of food getting under the plate while eating. I have discovered a method of so constructing the plate on which the teeth are set that they will not start or drop while eating or speaking, neither will any particles of food get under the plate, no matter what the condition of the mouth is, which is not true of any method hitherto used. I have secured Letters Patent for the United States, England and France.

The improvement is not in material, but in the construction, which cures the atmospheric pressure on the entire plate. I have sold the exclusive of said improvement to Dr. J. Gilman, to wit, the Counties of Franklin, Washington, Chittenden, Lamoille and Grand Isle. Those wishing to avail themselves of such improvement, will call on
